President's Message

Hello! Welcome to this very special year of the North Lanark Agricultural Society. It's our 150th Anniversary. I'm thrilled to invite you to join us as we showcase the agriculture and creativity of our community at this year's Almonte Fair.

Thinking back on all the history and tradition of this organization, it is absolutely staggering. I wonder what the founders would think if they knew that this annual event would be older than Canada's independence and the Town of Almonte. I do know that they would be glad that one of the most outstanding aspects of this fair is the gathering of people, both young and old. That is what makes any fair and especially the Almonte Fair so special and this is what makes fond memories for years to come.

While you visit with us, please take in all the wonders from: the midway, grandstand events, entertainment, demonstrations, food, concession vendors and competitions such as the judging of animals to the entries in the Main Hall. Our volunteers have worked hard to put this event on for you. I thank them from the bottom of my heart for their support and deep dedication. We have a lot of new members and many have taken on leadership roles and we are very thankful for that, but we could use a lot more volunteers to help support these leaders. Please check out our website or talk to our volunteer coordinator at the fair. Another large part of our fair is our advertisers and sponsors. Without their generosity, we could not bring you all the things that we do. Thank you so much.

I hope that you are looking forward the Almonte Fair 2008 with great anticipation, as I know I am!

See you at the fair and please join us for anniversary cake in the Main Hall at 2:00pm each day.

Sincerely,
Dianna Brydges-Lachapelle,
President

Homecraft President's Message

As we celebrate our 150th anniversary, traditions continue to run as deep as our roots. Many changes have occurred in Homecraft, but we encourage you to enter as many items in as many sections as you wish in order to continue, with pride, to fill the Agricultural Hall and give visitors and the community an appreciative view of the different talents that exist in crafts, culinary arts, horticulture, photography and woodworking.

This is my first year as Homecraft President, and I enjoy working with a great group of people. All volunteers take pride and enjoy preparing the Hall to celebrate 150 years of the Almonte Fair. If anyone has a few hours to spare to volunteer, please join our team and share ideas.

Please visit the Agricultural Hall during the Fair and enjoy the exhibits, sample some pie, chat with visitors, check out our demonstrations and also do some shopping with the many vendors.

See you at the Almonte Fair this July, 2008 and enjoy 150 years of celebrating "The Tradition Continues, Our Roots Run Deep".

Yours Sincerely,
Betty Renaud,
Homecraft President

DEMOLITION DERBY

At the Grandstand

SATURDAY, JULY 19, 2008, 7:30pm

Charlie Major, At the Grandstand

He's more Mellencamp than Merle. His lyrics champion the 'Blue Collar Hero' in a manner that resonates of Springsteen, and other roots rock legends, but it is in the country music format that Charlie Major finds his home.

Rising to the forefront of the Canadian Music scene in the early to mid nineties, Charlie had a heyday at radio as he became the first Canadian artist in history to score a BDS #1 with his debut single "I'm Gonna Drive You Outta My Mind."

Nine more chart topping hits would follow, and Charlie would criss cross North America headlining major tours and connecting with his fans at fairs and festivals. But as the saying goes "fame comes with a cost" and it wasn't long before a major US label signed Charlie, moved him and his family to Nashville and told him his sound needed to change and become "more country." They thought his records might sell better if he appeared on the album cover in a Stetson, and added more fiddles and steel guitars to his edgy songs. What the label did not know was that even though Major might sellout concerts, he was not the type of guy who 'sells out' his career. Charlie's integrity to remain true to his fans, himself and his music was immovable and so he relinquished the dream of the big US record deal and returned to his homeland where he continues to be embraced.

Nearly a decade later Charlie is as successful as ever, and doing things his way. His latest single and video "Make it Right" features Mike Holmes from the HGTV smash Holmes on Homes. He has sold nearly half a million records won 3 junos and 7 CCMA's, but you wouldn't know it to meet him, and he would not tell you. He wears the cloak of humility, just like the hardworking folks that he represents in his music. Truly a Canadian legend and one of the accomplished 'nice guys' in the game, Charlie would not have it any other way.

Privacy Act

The following quote is from the Privacy Commissioner of Canada regarding the new Privacy Act which was implemented January 1, 2003:

The fact sheet issued by the Privacy Commissioner of Canada points out that the presence of commercial activity is the most important consideration for nonprofits. However, fundraising is not a commercial activity, nor is collecting membership fees, organizing club activities, compiling a list of members' names and addresses, or mailing out newsletters. While the act of asking for donations is not subject to the Act, charities and nonprofits are still required to seek appropriate consent if selling, bartering, or leasing lists. These are considered to be commercial activities.

PLEASE NOTE

The North Lanark Agricultural Society does not sell, barter or lease any of the information we have on file regarding names, addresses etc. of all exhibitors at the annual agricultural fair, all members and all donors to the Society.

White Bread

Dry Ingredients: Mix well.

- 2 cups oriental white rice flour
1 cup gluten-free flour mix
1-1/2 tbsp clear gel (4-1/2 tsp)
1/4 cup sugar
3-1/2 tsp xanthan gum
1-1/2 tsp salt
1 cup non-fat dry milk powder
2-1/2 tsp active dry yeast

(Note: clear gel is pharmaceutical grade methylcellulose. Unflavoured gelatin may be substituted)

Wet Ingredients:

- 1 tsp apple cider vinegar
2 large eggs
*1-1/2 cups warm water (110-120 degrees)
1/4 cup corn oil

Preparation:

(* - note: add 1 to 3 tablespoons additional water, mixing well between additions, for softer texture bread. Amount needed depends on humidity and room temperature.
Grease a 9" x 5" loaf pan. Mix all dry ingredients well, including yeast. Blend eggs into warm water using a fork or whisk. Pour water/egg mixture into dry ingredients and mix on slowest speed of mixer until flour is moistened. Add oil and increase speed of mixer, blending all ingredients until you have a smooth creamy batter. Mix two minutes. Add more water for a "creamier" batter if desired. Pour into loaf pan and allow to rise in warm place to top of pan.
Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Bake on center rack for 50 to 60 minutes until brown. Cool in pan for 3 to 5 minutes; then remove bread from pan and place on rack to finish cooling.
When completely cool, slice and store in an airtight container lined with paper towels. Refrigerate within 48 hours. Keeps 7 to 10 days.

Carrot Spice Cookies

Ingredients:

- 1 cup packed brown sugar
1/2 cup margarine, softened
1 cup shredded carrots
1 cup raisins
1/2 cup unsweetened applesauce
1 large egg
2 tbsp molasses
1 tsp. vanilla
2-1/2 cups rice flour
1-1/2 tsp allspice
1/2 tsp. baking powder

Preparation:

Cream sugar and margarine in large bowl. Add carrots, raisins, egg, applesauce, molasses and vanilla. Mix well.
In a large bowl combine rice flour, allspice and baking powder. Slowly stir flour mixture into other ingredients and mix until well blended. Drop by teaspoonful, 2 inches apart, on lightly greased cookie sheet. Bake in 350 degree F oven 10 to 12 minutes or until cookies are set and lightly browned. Remove from baking sheet while still warm. Cool on wire rack. Makes 4 dozen.

Apple Cake

Ingredients:

3/4 cup rice flour
1/4 cup tapioca flour
1/2 cup potato starch (not potato flour)
1 tsp baking soda
3/4 tsp xanthan gum
1 tsp. cinnamon
1-1/2 tsp baking powder
2 tsp vanilla
1/2 cup butter
3/4 cup white sugar
3 tbsp brown sugar
2 eggs
3 tbsp milk
1-1/2 cups apples, peeled, cored and shredded (about 2 apples)
Icing sugar for dusting - optional.

Preparation: Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Grease either a 9” round springform pan or 8” square cake pan, and dust with rice flour. In a medium bowl, whisk together the flour mix, xanthan gum, baking soda, baking powder and cinnamon. Set aside.
In a large bowl, cream the butter for about 1 minutes or until softened. Add both sugars to butter and beat for about 2 minutes. Add the eggs, one at a time, and beat until well incorporated. Blend in the milk. Mix on low and add the dry ingredients half at a time, blending after each addition, until they are well absorbed. Gently fold in the shredded apples. Spoon the batter into the prepared pan and bake for 40-45 minutes, or until toothpick tests clean and cake pulls away from edge of pan. Cool at least 10 minutes before removing from pan.
